

Comsewogue Public Library
Program Fee Policy

Adult Services Department hands-on classes that require materials such as, but not limited to, crafts and hands-on cooking will require patron payment for the materials used in the class. The fee will be determined by the programmer upon booking (indicated on contract). The fee, payable to the library, can be paid when registering or within three days of registration. The library has the right to cancel a patron's registration if they fail to pay within three days of registration. The materials fee is non-refundable and non-transferable. The library will hold non-perishable materials for seven days (beginning the day after the class) for registrants who miss a class.
